COVERS RICHEST GOLD AREA IN CALIFORNIA

Vol. 12, No. 71. The County Seat Paper NEVADA CITY, CALIFORNIA The Gold Center MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 12, 1938.

From the Californian, March 15, 1848:
The Liberty of the Press consists in the right to publish the Truth, with good motives and for justifiable ends. — Alexander Hamilton

Thinking Out Loud

By H. M. L.

Over a month ago the Nevada City Nugget published an affidavit of two boys, who acknowledged stealing sponge gold from the older brother of one of the boys. This older brother at the time happened to be a deputy sheriff, and friends of Sheriff Tobiassen complained that the publication of the affidavit was likely to injure his (Tobiassen's) chance of being re-elected.

As a matter of fact enemies of law and order in Nevada County used the reprint of the affidavit published in the Nugget, in a futile effort to defeat Sheriff Tobiassen. Reprints of it were circulated throughout Grass Valley and Nevada City stealthily under cover of darkness. In violation of the law the printer who reprinted these affivadits did not affix his imprimatur on the circular.

Tobiassen was not only re-elected but went into office with probably the largest vote ever given a sheriff in this county at the primary. The editor of this newspaper was satisfied and thousands of other voters were satisfied that the sheriff had no first hand knowledge of his deputy's activity in buying gold.

But whether the sheriff would have been injured or not in his election campaign, it would still have been the duty of this newspaper to publish the news. The only justification for a newspaper is, just that: publishing the news. Alongside the title of the Nevada City Nugget on this page is this boxed statement of Alexander Hamilton:

"The Liberty of the Press consists in the right to publish the Truth, with good motives and for justifiable ends."

Was the end justifiable? Events have proved it so. Of the two boys who admitted stealing gold, variously estimated as worth $5,000 to $7,000, one, the younger brother of the alleged gold buyer, has been sent to a reformatory, and the other has been placed on probation until he is 21 years old.

The Federal authorities became extremely active with the publication of the affidavit, and four men have been arrested it is believed, partly as a result of the confession of the two boys and are now in the Sacramento jail charged with dealing in high-grade gold. Other arrests are soon expected.

The Nugget takes the position that stolen gold is stolen whether it comes out of a bank, someone's private mattress, or from a mine. Thieves are still thieves whether they rustle cattle or purloin high-grade ore. To suppress gold thieving in the mines, viewed from a very practical standpoint, helps to maintain a high standard of wages, for the miners, better dividends for stock holders and increased confidence on the part of investors in the mining industry.

The keystone in the high-grading arch is the go-between, the man who buys high-grade ore from miners who filch it from the mines, extracts the gold, and in turn sells it to the wholesalers who have found an avenue of disposing of it either abroad or to the U S. Mint. When the keystone crumbles the whole arch falls. We do not profess to know all the details connected with the story told by the two boys some weeks ago. As a rule thieves are not particularly truthful, but enough was told by the two boys to supply federal authorities with valuable clues.

ELZA KILROY RECEIVES NEWS OF UNCLE'S DEATH

Elza Kilroy received the sad news today of the death of his uncle, Emery Kuster, aged 48 years, in Yuba City at 10:30 this morning. He is the last of a family of eight children and was well known here where he had visited many times. Kilroy and Kuster were almost like brothers and the passing is felt keenly.

Left to mourn his passing are a loving wife, two sons and a two year daughter, several cousins, and nephew, Elza Kilroy. Funeral arrangements have not been completed any one wishing to attend the service should contact Mr. Kilroy. The body is at the Lipp and Sullivan mortuary in Marysville.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Develey of Alleghany visited Mr. and Mrs. Carl Johnson and Mr. and Mrs. Jas. F. Dolan Saturday.

"THIRTY EVERY THURSDAY PLAN IS FANTASTIC"

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 12.—Political battle lines were sharply drawn today as Governor Merriam came out unequivocaly in opposition to the thirty dollar every Thursday plan which he characterised as "fantastic". At the same time opposition candidates converged on the state capitol to determine the campaign issues particularly the thirty dollar plan.

Sheridan Downey, senatorial candidate of the opposition, is strongly in favor of the plan and will insist upon its incorporation in the Democratic platform. Culbert Olson, candidate for governor, in his primary speeches, expressed a sympathetic attitude and promised his cooperation if the amendment carries.

Governor Merriam declared that in the campaign, candidates should speak out sincerely and honestly. He said that he had given his endorsement four years ago to the Townsend OldA-ge Pension because he felt that anything of this nature should be undertaken on a national scale, otherwise any state attempting it would become bankrupt.

The governor's statement, in part, follows:

"As the campaign advances it shall be at all times my purpose to deal sincerely with all questions, and to invite the opposition to do likewise.

"On such a basis I believe all concerned should speak with honesty and with clarity concerning all genuine issues; and particularly with respect to a question which, temporarily, at least, seems to dwarf all others.

"I refer to the so-called thirty-dollars-a-week plan.

"Believing it to be fantastic, that it not only will fail miserably in application, but will bring financial disaster in its wake, I am unreservedly opposed to the scheme.

"Whatever old age security law may be adopted should be national in scope. Anything less—a state plan such as proposed—simply invites the eligible here from other states and eventually will bring ruin to the old age security cause and financial disaster to the salaried and economic interests of California. My own position on this subject is known through my indorsement nearly four years ago of the plan originated by Dr. Francis E. Townsend and to which principle, because it is nationwide in its application. I am giving support.

"On this significant day in particular, which all true Americans observe in honor of our workers as Labor Day, I can think of no greater jeopardy to employment, no greater undermining of the security of our teachers and of all workers, both in private and public occupations, than such a scheme.

"Adequate income for our retired citizens, already undertaken in California will soon reach its objective only if the problem is attacked honestly and sanely. Any other approach will add merely to the heartaches, the hardships, and the privations of those entitled to such income.

"I invite the voters of all political faiths to join in a crusade for honesty and sanity in public policy and in public leadership.

"In such a crusade there are no barriers of party, of section, or of public interest."

HYDRAULIC PARLOR INSTALLATION TUES.

The officers of Hydraulic Parlor, Native Sons of the Golden West, will be installed Tuesday night by District Deputy Grand President George Hamnfil of Quartz Parlor, No. 58 of Grass Valley.

The officers who will be seated are: Robert C. Polglase, president; Robert Tucker, first vice president; Gerald Peard, second vice president; Carl Hieronimus, third vice president; Dr. C. W. Chapman, recording secretary; Miles D. Coughlin, financial secretary; Joe G. O'Neill, treasurer; E. J. Baker, trustee, J. C. Scheemer, trustee; Clarence E. Martz senior past president; William H. James, junior past president; James Peard, inside sentinel, Edward Powell. outside sentinel.

Many visiting brothers are expected for the occasion. There will be refreshments served after the meeting.

BOND ELECTION FOR NEV. IRRIGATION DIST.

Directors of the Nevada Irrigation District have called an election for September 28 to pass on a financing proposition which will provide for the construction of a dam at Scotts Flat east of Nevada City and additional flumes and canals for the irrigation district. The voters, landowners within the confines of the district which is in Nevada and Placer counties, will be asked to give their approval of a plan to raise $253,000 which will be combined with a $207,000 PWA grant for the proposed construction.

CORNISHMAN MEASURES MURCHIE PUMP ROD

Night Officer Jim Williams tells a story on an old time Cornish miner who worked at the Murchie mine years ago. Some trouble was experienced by the pumpmen and the machinery was quiet for a time. One of the men suggested to the miner that he go down and measure the pump rod. After a silence of an hour or more the man returned.

Well, what did it measure he was asked. He said he found it to be a "pick and pick handle, dag and dag handle, tap and stick and scraper, two bloody great rocks and a piece of string, your two fingers and your thumb." Necessity is the mother of invention, and the Englishman had taken the methods at hand to measure the rod.

GOLD STAR DREDGING COMPANY

The Gold Star Dredging company has started installing a dredge between the Atlas Mining company ground and the Penn Dredging company dragline dredgers now working along Deer Creek west of Nevada City. A caterpillar was used to build a road to take machinery and the equipment to the gravel deposits along the stream. This will make the third dragline dredge to work on gravel banks, ore from quartz mines and concentrates to be found along the stream the latter from old mines in operation years ago. James F. King is president of the company.

Tony Deschwanden of Gold Flat is doing some remodeling in preparation for winter. Mr. and Mrs. Brian Krough have re-roofed their home on Drummond street. The roof was cut into and a large room with windows facing south was formed to give more space in this cosy home.

Mrs. Will Walthers of San Francisco spent the past week end in Nevada City visiting her brother, James F. Dolan, and wife. Upon her return home Sunday she accompanied Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Jackson, Jr., as far as Sacramento. Mr. and Mrs. Jackson attended the state fair.

TRIAL OF GRANT SPEAR BEGINS

Subject to two more premptory challenges on the part of the defense and five on the part of the prosecution, eleven men and women filled all but one of the seats in the jury panel at the close of the first day of trial of the People versus Grant Spear before Judge Raglan Tuttle. The charge against Spear is that of rioting on January 20 on the Murchie road, in connection with an attempted strike of the CIO affiliate against the mine. Twenty three members of the CIO called the strike without making any complaint to the mine management and without taking a vote among the 240 miners then employed in the Murchie.

Five men, Jim Vasion, Peter Zdrich, Roy Staton, C. E. Circle and Henry Yuen, charged with rioting on January 20 were convicted in June, and all sentenced to six months in jail, $600 fine, with one exception. C. E. Circle, regarded as a leader in the rioting was sentenced to eight months in jail.

At four o'clock this afternoon, the day's venire panel was exhausted. The following appeared:

Mrs. M. H. Perkins, Frank Shaw, A. C. Hocking, Samuel F. Cluphf, Henry Ripkin, Rose D. Hubbard, A. W. Hansen, Mrs. Falye Scott, Mrs. Chas L. Goodnight, Louis Montre, Albert C. Thomas, Ida S. Hatton, William Jaeckle, William Ullrich, J. C. Hall, L. B. Dundas, Mrs. Ay Bludsoe.

Mrs. Blanche T. Durbrow, T. H. Corcoran, William Roddy, William Smith, Ona L. Underwood, Mrs. A. F. Joerschke, Gertrude M. Esterly, William Segsworth, B. G. Spicer, M. F. Newberry, Ida Fae Meeker, Edith Harms, Cora O. Frink, Ida Knittel, Thos. M. Harris, J. F. Seley.

Chas. H. Wood, Phil Personini, Robert Koehler, Owen Roberts, G. L. Gallmeister, Margaret Hamilton, Grass Wallin, Marion B. Loney, Vivian Caliste, Emily Simpson, George Galetto. Ed Pardini.

The following are to appear Tuesday morning:

Edward L. Bell, Winnie Murphy, Kathryn Bishop, J. B. McKenney, Ada P. Eden, Lenora Brooks, Lois Eden, Eunice Ann Coan, Jess Sutton, Walter Smart, George Harper, Gordon Wood, Frank C. Rodgers.

Reuben Burkholder, Betty McGuire, Leticia M. Ingle, Rudolph Dahlberg, W. H Ennis, P. J. Fridoni, A. E. Murphy, Frank S. Bice, Geo. B. McQuinn. G. C. Townsell, Wm. Kessler, Miles Tilden, E. M. McMillan, Mamie Thompson, Frank M. Johnson, Juliet Cox, Edwina M. Ellsworth.

Harold Robinson, elisor, summoned the panel of 75 veniremen, a part of whom appeared today. Geo. Anderson, appeared as attorney for the defense and Vernon Stoll district attorney, prosecuted, assisted by John Larue.

CANADIAN LEGION INTALLS OFFICERS

The Canadian Legion of the Twin Cities held installation Satuday evening in Grass Valley. Newly installed officers are: John Greentree, commander; J. S. Foreman, Nevada City, first vice commander; E. Uren, second vice commander; Alec Jamie chaplain; Eddie Blamire, adjutant; Phil Metrovich, inner guard; John Hill, finance officer.

The first meeting for this section of the Northern Area district officers was held at Lake Olympia Sunday while the auxiliary of the legion held their meeting in Serra Hall in Grass Valley yesterday forenoon. After the sessions were over the annual picnic was enjoyed at Lake Olympia. Officers were present for the northern area meeting from all over California, among them being State Commander Max Bricknell; Northern Area Commander Nick Rimmer; Stat Adjutant, P. B. Snelchell; State Auxiliary Commander Mrs. Evans.

Saturday evening the Canadian Legion members, Auxiliary, visiting officers and members paraded through the streets of Grass Valley. The Oakland Drum and Bugle Corps which were to have been in the parade arrived about ten minutes late. However those participating formed a colorful line of march with their brilliant uniforms and headgear and a good crowd was out to view the parade.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Johnson visited Mr. and Mrs. Carl Becker of Marysville Sunday.

Federals Arrest Four In Alleged $750,000 Highgrade Conspiracy

Arrested for alleged participation in what U. S. Secret Service officials call a $750,000 highgrading conspiracy, four men are in custody in Sacramento. The men are Frank Fuller, Jr. 20, his brother, George Fuller, 20, Elwood Orr, and John Benich 49.

These men, the officers allege, disposed of $750,000 of stolen gold to the United States Mint in San Francisco between January, 1936 and February 1938, the largest alleged highgrading operation in the history of California mining.

The Fullers owned a mine near Jackson, and Elwood Orr operated a custom mill near the town of Plymouth.

To John Bongard, investigator for the State Mining Bureau, goes a large measure of credit for the arrests. It is stated he has been on the trail of the alleged highgrading ring for more than a year.

The men are being held for Federal Grand jury investigation, which body is now in session in Sacramento. Other arrests are expected to follow.

ENGLEBRIGHT SPEAKS AT G. V. ROTARY LUNCH

Harry L. Englebright, Representative in Congress from this district, addressed the Grass Valley Rotary club today at luncheon in Bret Harte Inn. He described the unprecedented situation that arise in congress with the death of Senator Joe Robinson, majority leader, and of Representative Byrns in the House of Representatives. The administration was able to obtain the election of Alben Barkley of Kentucky over Senator Harrison by the bare majority of one vote, 38 to 37, and in the house representative O'Connor of New York, was defeated by just three votes by the administration's choice, Repesentative Rayburn of Texas. While did not say so, Representative Englebright indicated clearly the very narrow majority by which the administration holds power in congress and is able to force acceptance of the New Deal program of reforms.

There were a large number of visiting Rotarians at the Grass Valley luncheon. Ed Burtner, song leader, practiced the club in several new songs.

FINDS OLD ROUGH AND READY CERTIFICATE

E. M. Stone, fire dispatcher for the Tahoe National forest, and family have just returned from a vacation at Tamales Bay. While there Mr. Stone's father planned to purchase an old building and while looking it over found an old Rough and Ready mine stock certificate which was for 12½ shares and numbered 178. It stated ore in the mine was worth $700 a ton in gold with high silver values.

JEWELER IN LARGED QUARTERS

R. J. Berggren, local jeweler of Pine street, has just about completed settling his new stock in the enlarged store space provided for him recently when partitions were torn out from the store space formerly occupied by Norman Kistle. The display is quite attractive and will enable Mr. Berggren to carry a much larger stock of jewelry.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ghidotti are vacationing in San Francisco this week and expect to return home Thursday. Mr. Ghidotti is manager of the Caardinal store and Mrs. Ghidotti is with the Alpha Hardware store.

Demand for houses in Nevada City continues brisk. Several new homes have been noted.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wyant, the Shamrock owners, have purchased the house of Clara Angiolini Pratt on Boulder street and moved into it in the last few days. W. H. Daniels, local realtor made the sale.

A new home for David Arnott of Alta Hill at Grass Valley was started today. Roy Clark purchased lumber for a new home on the Willow Valley road and it is well on the road to completioo. John McQuay is the contractor.

E. W. Penrose of Nimrod street tore down his old home and is building a cosy new one. Walter Merrigan is contractor.

Ross F. Taylor, Sierra county mining engineer, was a business visitor in Nevada City today.

BERT'S OPENING IS THRONGED BY HOST OF FRIENDS

It was a little over ten years ago Bert Chegwidden, of Bert's Dry Goods Store, took over the business of the veteran merchant, W. R. Rowe, and began a long and honorable career of merchandising, giving what a great many preach and few practice, "service with a smile."

Through thick and thin, prosperity or depression, Bert's has prospered, chiefly by selling first class goods with his, or his manufacturer's guarantee backing most items, and a determination that patrons should be really satisfied.

Bert's has grown steadily, though not spectacularly, until today his staff numbers five, each one trained in the best traditions of efficient and courteous service.

The liberal patronage accorded Bert's Dry Goods Store, not only by residents of Grass Valley, but by Nevada City and San Juan Ridge folks, in fact, by people living throughout the county and beyond, have made it possible for Bert Chegwidden to expand the show room and service facilities of his store.

This process of modernizing and adorning the store has just been completed and last Friday night Bert held open house for his host of friends.

And the friends came by scores and hundreds to view a brand new interior. New counters in beautifully finished gum wood, new shelving, abundant and modern lighting facilities, swanky dressing rooms for dress fitting, and down through the center of the store a series of tables finished down to the floor in the same satiny wood as other furniture, and loaded with all the latest and loveliest things dear to the feminine heart. They ohed! and ahed! at the soft but effective lighting system, they admired, no end, the resplendent new show windows. They congratulated Bert and the members of his staff; noted that in honor of the occasion and to honor Bert and his staff a great many friends and well wishers had contributed splendid floral pieces and giant bouquets.

"There is just one thing I can tell you, Bert," said one pleased granddame, who knew Bert when he was only a head taller than a dachhund. "and that is you have brought class to the Sierras."

CAPTAIN BRUCE HILL ROTARY SPEAKER THURS.

Captain Bruce Hill, of the California Debris Commission of Sacramento, will give an illustrated lecture on aerial photigraphy at the Rotary meeting Thursday. Officers of the California Hydraulic Miners association have been invited to attend as guests.

A meeting was held in the Tahoe National Forest headquarters during the last few days and Superintendent DeWitt Nelson cut down the flood control crews as appropriations expire September 30. This was a special appropriation of money for this work which was carried on all over the national forest. It will eliminate three crews. The work consisted mostly of bridge rebuilding and repair, repairing roads and in places construction of sections of roads that were completely washed out or beyond repair.

JUST WONDERIN'

I wonder about school days now
And all the lads and lassies
Preoccupied with serious tasks
In lecture halls and classes;
And I do hope as day by day
They gather in their places,
That nothing gleaned from Wisdom's book
May cloud their morning faces.

I wonder if children, boys especially, really dread returning to school after a pleasant vacation, or is the belief that they do just a fallacy, adopted and believed in because of its many repetitions.

Certainly if one may judge by the excited bustle of preparation, prevailing at this time in and about homes and institutions of learning, the gleeful salutations and lilting laughter, the prospect of resuming school work is filling no young soul with dread. Every where the children are flocking back to school with bright eyes, smiling faces and eager anticipations of further conquests over that illustive giant named Education.

I wonder what education really is; the word comes from the Latin, educe, meaning to draw out; but you can't draw anything out of an empty container, so we fill that melting pot, the brain, with every conceivable brand of information, and the result as demonstrated by the individual, marks him as educated, or uneducated—quite definitely.

American standards of education are high, the character, ability, and initiative of American educators excellent; bearing these facts in mind, when the young flower of the family has made the grades from A. B. C. to B. A., we expect to find him devoid of ignorance and superstition and possessed of an open minded tolerance, a comprehensive knowledge of the world, its peoples, history and affairs, and the ability to recognize and appreciate the best in literature, music, art, morals, manners and ideals. American schools and colleges expose the student to this type of culture; if it fails to take—we can only watch anxiously as he enters upon that important phase of learning, which begins where school days end and prayerfully consign him to the tender mercies of those two grim masters, Time and Experience.

I wonder why critics deal so harshly with certain modern song titles; now these titles are all right, they are merely misdirected. While inelegant to a degree and wholly unsuited to the delicate expression of romantic emotions, they might well prove useful in other departments of lyric art. For instance, that absurd first line, —You leave me breathless—suggests a serenade to a mountain which one has climbed gaspingly, You Get Under My Skin—is an excellent title for an Ode to a Wood Tick, and as for, You Go To My Head—there are numerous things that go to our heads beside young love—you must have noticed that yourself.

THIS AND THAT

By ROY GRIFFITHS DEETER

WE HATE TO GET IN AN UPROAR, BUT: Well anyway, we went to the State Fair, all the birds and the beasts were there! OUR IM PRESSIONS: Acres of parking space, intense heat, fat cows, standing room only, millions of people, gorgeous horses, standing room only, places and places to eat, more people, barnyard smells, B. O. STANDING room only, fireworks, night review, S. H. P. Officers all armed with WALKING STICKS, recumbent pigs, standing room ONLY, horse shows, twenty-milion-people- and heaven-knows-how-manl-insects, and STANDING ROOM ONLY. OUR COMMENT—Our kingdom for a scooter!

NOW WE HAVE SOMETHING: A REAL tip for you lovers of the legit: In Sacramento, at the Auditorium playing in "I am Different", is Talulah Bankhead, in person, yes indeed, she of the husky voice and the naughty eyes! Talulah made her name in London and is justly popular in that village, for not only has she looks and a SHAPE, them eyes and thise voice, but, oh my lads, and ah my lassies, she has TALENT! This play is good, the supporting east is, (are) good, the acustics in the auditorium are good, (they have just put in a fine amplifying system), and la Bankhead is grand.

PERSONALITIES: Bob Ingram, the night editor, sitting comfortably over a cup of coffee in a local restaurant waiting for the dirt to roll by. Myers Mobley with a fatherly gleam in his eye lugging around his thoroughbred, four weeks old Collie pup, and IS he the proud papa? Reminds us of Frank Morgan in "Port of Seven Seas" if you get what we mean?

TRIVIAL COMMENT: We adore Nevada City, we like Sacramento. In N. C. you can always find the people you are looking for, in S. they have either "just left" or are in bed. In N. C. telephone numbers are short and sweet, in S. it takes a mathematician to remember them. In N. C. we have stop signs, in S. they have stop signs, In N. C. we have hills, in S. they have no hills. In N. C.—ad nauseum, after all, we ASK you?

AND SO, leaving you with this profound thought we say, hola to all at 64, and cheerio, everybody.

THREE MEN ON A HORSE

BOB SAUNDERS, PERSONALITY WIT A VOICE, COMING

Good dance music speaks a language of rhythm to the sensitive ear. The body relaxes in exotic dance motion and romance takes the place of commonplace details of every day life. Therefore ever since human history has been recorded the dance has been known and practiced both in religious and secular life.

BOB SAUNDERS

It is only natural that man should strive for the kind of music ensemble or orchestra that can with smooth artistry give pleasure to those for whom the music is being player. Bob Saunders and his orchestra has in a large degree reached the point in their dance band career when their style of music appeals to every one.

Maurice Kach has engaged Bob Saunders "the personality with a voice" to open his winter dancing season at Legion building Saturday evening September 17. because of Bob's outstanding ability to please his dancing public wherever he has presented his orchestra. Next Saturday evening, then, will be a gala event at the Legion building when Bob Saunders, dance maestro, batons his musicians in the new style dance music, both swing and sweet.

SEAWELL NAMES MEMBERS STATE REP. COMMITTEE

By SEN. JERROLD L. SEAWELL

In conformity with the equal representation law for the State Central Committee passed by the last legislature, which requires that I appoint two women and one man to serve with me from the 7th Senatorial District, I have appointed the following Republicans in my district, as members of the Republican State Central Committee: Mrs. Elizabeth E. Lukens, of Auburn, Mrs. Louise Wales, of Grass Valley, and Mr. Ed G.White of Loyalton. Your attention is invited to the fact that the 1937 legislature made several important changes in the direct primary law, the principal being in the setting ahead of dates of the meetings for the state convention and the state central committee. The convention will be held on Thursday, September 15, opening at 1$ a. m. in Sacramento using the Senate Chambers, while the Democratic convention and state central committee will convene on the same dates using state assembly chambers. The law also reads that a party nominee can only appoint one of his sex to the state central committee the other two members must be of the opposite sex. This change was made in order that women might have proper representation in the party organization.

Mrs. E. Walmsley returned Sunday from a business trip and visit in Los Angeles. Her little daughter, Ellen, will remain in Los Angeles with her sister for a time.

Dick Fisher has just returned from a two months visit with his sister in Hercules.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

By WINTHROP TRUE

(All Rights Reserved by the Author).

PART TWO

Answer: Certainly. Low wages would force down the price of commodities. The automobile now selling for $1000 would sell for $500 or less. The used cars now selling for $250. would probably sell for $75 or less. Tires would sell for about $2.00 and gasoline for seven or eight cents a gallon. And whiskey (another necessity) for about a dollar a gallon.

Question: How about luxuries—like corn beef, beans and nairy products?

Answer: The following prices (as of 1900) would return. Round steak 12c; pork chops 15; ham 12c; poultry 12c; eggs 12c; butter 20c; milk 5c; flour 2c. And house rent, clothing and other commodities would be less than half the prices of today.

Question: Just how would this increase the nation's purchasing power?

Answer: It would equalize the purchasing power of individuals. There are in America today over eight million families and six million other individuals having small fixed incomes. There are millions of workingmen and women now receiving small wages who would continue to receive nearly as much as they are now receiving. Their purchasing power would be doubled, they could buy two suits where now they buy one, more shoes, more of everything. Others would find their purchasing power increased to a lesser degree because increased production would bring th prices of commodities below the wage level th,at is, the decrease in commodity prices would be greater than the decrease in wages.

Question: How could this reversion to the status of 1900 be accomplished?

Answer: By the passing of a minimum and maximum wage law setting the minimum wage at $2.00 a day and the maximum wage at $3.50.

Question: How about the salaries of municipal, state and government employees?

Answer: If the maximum and minimum law did not carry to them their salaries would be automatically forced down. Lower rents would bring lower taxes, there would be smaller revenues. Lower margins of profit would effect rents. State and government employees would be dropped until there would be only twice as many as were needed at salaries only twice what their services are worth after they had been reduced about 70 per cent.

Question: Why do high wages and high prices cause hard times?

Answer: High wages cause high prices which cause curtailed purchasing by the 75 per cent of the people who receive small wages or small incomes. Curtailed purchasing decreases production which compels manufacturers to lay off help. It effects the railroads, jobbers, wholesalers and retailers, the manufacturers of fibre and wooden containers, cordage, glass, paper, canning factories. It effects the farmer and every branch of industry.

Better Light HELPS KEEP EYES RIGHT!

PEOPLE say modern lighting that is "easy on the eyes" makes the eyes feel better . . . And they are right . . . Good lighting brings out the beauty of the home furnishings . . . It aids personal beauty, too.

Light that is glaring brightness or that is dim and gloomy makes hard work of seeing. It causes squints and frowns and scowls and brings on many premature wrinkles and face-lines.

Good, modern lighting merely means the right kind of light, and the right amount of light where you read or sew or use your eyes. And you can have it easily, quickly, inexpensively. A Home Lighting Recommendation chart made out for your home will fit lighting to serve the exact seeing-needs in your home. This is a free service and there is no obligation. Hundreds are taking advantage of this service. Why not you?

From Aunt Sarah

Mrs. Harriet Farmer again sends in two more of her "every day-easy to make recipes" this week. They are the kind you can get together in a jiffy.

Jiffy Muffins
One tablespoon sugar.
A little salt.
2-3 cup sweet milk.
2 cups bread flour.
2 taspoons baking powder.
1 beaten egg.

Sift dry ingredients, mill all together, beat moderately, then add 1-4 cup melted shortening.

Jiffy Corn Bread
1 1-3 cups yellow corn meal.
2-3 cups white flour.
1-2 cup brown sugar (scant.)
1 cup sour milk or butter milk.
1 teaspoon soda or 1-2 teaspoon sado and 1 teaspoon baking powder.
2 tablespoons melted shortening (bacon or sausage drippings are good.

Mix together, spread in shallow pan and sprinkle with nutmeg. Bake in hot oven.

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

By JEAN MARTZ

Thursday night the seniors at Nevada City high school gave a dance in honor of the freshmen. The dancing started at 8 o'clock and continued until 11 with Foote's orchestra providing the music. The dance was held in the high school gymnasium and was very enjoyable to all who attended. Soda water was served for the dancers. The students enjoy the dances very much because in the fine large gumnasium which is a splendid place for their parties.

Mrs. Carribean Orzalli of Grove streets is quite ill at her home and under a doctors care. She has had a bad cold and other complications develop.

Mr. and Mrs. John Tognarelli motored to San Fafael during the past week end with their daughter, Miss Catherine Tognarelli who enters Dominican Convent today. Mr. and Mrs. Tognarelli visited in San Francisco before returning home.

Among those planning to leave Nevada City and Grass Valley this morning for a fellowship meeting of their church in Woodland were, Mrs. Leslie Land, Rev. and Mrs. George Thrane and little daughter, Jeannie, Harry Seiker, Chris Hanson Mrs. Brown, Misses Bonita Bailey, Alta Cox, Mr. Land.

G. V. MINERS IN SACTO. LEAGUE PLAYOFF

The Grass Valley Miners baseball team defeated the Woodland team 6 to 5 yesterday at Watt Park in Grass Valley, to win the second half championship of the Sacramento Valley league. Officials of the local team will confer with Chico officials tonight in Marysville on plans for the playoff between the two teams for the title. The series will start next Sunday.

Many Nevada City fans witnessed the game yesterday. The winning Grass Valley Miners run was scored in the ninth inning when Pitcher Al Lazzarone "squeezed" in George Cooper for third base. The bases were full at the time. Stetson, Woodland pitcher, had walked Ken Brock to fill the bases after Cooper walked and Manager Dick Hoskins singled to get at Lazzarone.

Woodland trailed the Miners 5 to 2 in the eighth inning but two home runs, one with a man on base, tied the score. Grass Valley runs 6; hits, 12 and errors one; Woodland, runs five; hits 11 and errors, one. Batteries were Lazzarone for Grass Valley and Stetson and Jameson for Woodland.

Social Events

Robert Durbrow Weds Miss Geraldine Elmgren

At 4 o'clock Saturday afternoon, before an assembled group of relatives and very close friends in the chapel of the Grace Cathedral in San Francisco, Miss Geraldine Elmgren became the bride of Robert Durbrow.

The former Miss Elmgren wore conventional white satin with a bridal headdress of a modern cap while her bridal bouquet of old-fashioned flowers was arranged as a muff. The bride was attended by Mrs. James Robinson as matron of honor and the bridegroom by William Menx, a fraternity brother, as best man.

Richard Elmghen, brother of the bride gave her in marriage.

The ushers were William Durbrow, Jr., Robert Baker and Ted Ross.

The chapel was decorated in hydrangeas, the rich coloring of which were reflected in the ensemble and accessories worn by the matron of honor.

Special organ music preceded the ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Florence Elmgren of Los Gatos and is a graduate of the University of California with the class of 1933. She has been employed by the Bank of America since graduation.

"Bob" Durbrow received his degree in the College of Agriculture of the University of California with the class of 1932. He was affiliated with the Phi Gamma Delta fraternity at Berkeley.

He is now employed in Merced county with the extension service of the Department of Agriculture. The young couple will make their home in the San Joaquin valley community.

MARRIED IN MANILA

An announcement was received in Nevada City yesterday announcing the marriage of Eddie Hammermeister and Miss Carolyn Mabel Kress in Manila, Philippine Islands Sunday. It is a college romance both having attended the University of Washington Hammermeister was from Pulallup and his bride was from Seattle. Hammermeister was well known here having worked in the local mines between two and three years. He studied until he received promotions in the mining field and left here about two years ago.

HONORS OFFICER

Evangeline Chapter, O. E. S., entertained at a surprise party after their business meeting last Tuesday evining. Worthy Matron Alice Davies and members gave Worthy Patron Walter Carlson, who was elected superintendent of schools for Nevada County, in the last election, an X-party which was a complete surprise.

At the close of the meeting the party was announced and all proceeded to the banquet hall where a huge cake was the central feature. On this cake were "Total 4059." Small numbers about the edge were precinct numbers in the county. Favors were marshmallows with pennants on which were "Walter Carlson X". Motifs about the tables were Better Education, Right Man for Right Place, Vote Now, and many others. Mr. Sarlson was overcome for a moment but regained his composure to make a very fine speech.

The next meeting of chapter will be Tuesday, October 20 and Associate Matron Esther Tremaine Joyal, recent bride, will be honor guest of the evening.

GOOD PLUM CROP

Bartlett pears continue to go to the Chicago Park packing shed from that district at quite a lively pace and higher prices are encouraging the growers. The Grass Valley packing plant closed about two weeks ago. Hungarian plums have been harvested and shipped and picking President plums started today. There is quite a good sized crop of plums this year.

I am very thankful for the fine support given me by the people of Nevada County in the Primary Election, and I wish to assure the voters that I will give my best efforts to the duties of Judge of the Superior Court.
